

God's NOT interested in your ABILITY; He's interested in your AVAILABILITY

Trust God today, and watch what He will do for you tomorrow.

Pray much and take risks

Pay no attention to the warnings of possible excess from those who are satisfied with lack

Catch a glimpse of what could be and settle for nothing less

*Personal integrity is the backbone of all life and ministry.
Our credibility is founded on this one thing.*

*It is impossible to have faith
where you have no hope.*

Be willing to fail to succeed.

Do It Afraid!
