FROM VICTORIOUS PUBLICATIONS - 03/18/2007

Dear Tim Morstatter:

Thanks so much for requesting permission to reproduce my copyrighted articles. I placed some of my writings on the Internet to be a blessing to all, and always appreciate knowing where and by whom they will be distributed.

Based on the information you have provided, you have our permission to reproduce the articles you specified, as long as you comply with our previously stated terms. As a reminder, articles may not be edited or sold, and the author's name and copyright notice must always remain displayed on each reproduction. This permission also extends to media reproduction rights, for republication in your magazine, newspaper or periodical. If reproduced in your own publication, we do ask you to send us a copy.

We also make many of these same titles available as publishable tri-fold pamphlets, which can be downloaded and reproduced with a copy machine for mass distribution at www.victorious.org/catalog.htm. Because we make these available via the internet at no charge, it becomes possible for any church or missionary organization to obtain and distribute large quantities of well-written Christian tracts and pamphlets. Churches and organizations all over the world use these resources, often stocking literature racks with a library of our various titles.

One other thing, I want you to know that I am available as a special speaker to churches and Christian organizations. Besides writing for national publications, and teaching in a college setting, I have served as an evangelist and pastor for more than twenty-five years, and enjoy sharing God's Word to audiences everywhere. As a pioneer of Internet ministries, as well as having been a long-time TV and radio broadcaster, I am often asked to speak to seminars or conventions about using the Internet (or electronic media) for ministry. My wife also has a gifted ministry in music, and has appeared on many well-known Christian TV programs. You can view a brief bio at www.victorious.org/robbins.htm, or listen to some of our recent sermons, songs or radio broadcasts at www.victorious.org/audio.htm. For more information, email or contact us at: Victorious Publications, 101 W McKnight Way B-153, Grass Valley, CA 95949.

God bless you!
